From the story told by Motorman J. Higgs of No. 25, the man was lying parallel with the rail, hidden by the weeds and grass that grow rather high on the stretch from King street to Bere-

The car was going fast, as is custom ry on the stretch, and it was but a hort distance away when Higgs first saw the body. He dropped his fende and put an all his brakes at once, but was too late, and the fender dropped on the man's foot and rolled over him. The car stopped twelve feet from the are where the marks showed him to cave been first struck, which testified well for the short distance in which the car was stopped after the man was Besides Higgs and Conductor Schultz, the others on the car at the time it struck the man were C H. Med ealf of Hackfeld & Co., Edward King. A. Monld, Antone Botelho of the lengue grounds and J. H. Lawelawe, a steve-None of these could add anything to the testimony, as the accident hapened too quickly.
